

Integration as a way of modernization. An explanatory framework for regional integration (INTEGRA).

Mid-term international meeting - Program

INTEGRA, Integration as a way to modernization. An explanatory framework for regional integration

4th-6th July 2013
ISES-Kőszeg (Hungary)

Thursday 4th July

9.00-13.00

Discussion on book presentation (Lorenza Sebesta and Natalie Doyle)

15.00-19.00

Presentation and discussion individual papers and book chapters (1st part):

- Modernization plans between the wars in Europe
- (Pierre Tilly, University of Louvain la Neuve, Belgium)
- Local actors as modernizing elements of the state: International Municipalism between the Wars (Maria Luna Pont, University of Tres de Febrero)
- Alexandre Kojève's "end of history" and European integration. New paths to understand the linkages between modernization and integration. (Lorenza Sebesta, University of Bologna, campus of Buenos Aires)

Friday 5th July

9.00-13.00

Presentation and discussion individual papers and book chapters (2nd part)

- The question of European "economism" (Natalie Doyle, University of Monash)
- Sensitive products in Mercosur: from potential losers of modernisation to national priorities (Luciana Gil, University of Buenos Aires)
- The impact of the crises from the perspective of integrative efforts in Latin America (Gerardo Caetano, CEFIR, Montevideo, Uruguay)

- The impact of the crises from the perspective of integrative efforts in Europe (Ferenc Mészlivet, ISES, Kőse - Hungary)

15.00-19.00

Joint session with participants of Summer School

The future of integration

European- Latin America and beyond: concluding debate

Student presentation

Summer school general closing debate

Saturday 6th July

9.00-13.00

INTEGRA project: Final discussion and practical details of the publication

Note: In the process of drafting the first version of their papers, many authors have found it useful to change the title. Please find here a draft presentation of the book with the provisionally updated titles.

ESTA ACTIVIDAD SE REALIZÓ CON EL APOYO DE LA UNIÓN EUROPEA EN EL ÁMBITO DE LA ACCIÓN JEAN MONNET.